GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Chapin Leonard and Harriet S. Bean, both natives of Glover, were married by the late Rev. Nathan W. Scott on Sept. 3, 1861, and started married life in a new house built by the groom on the spot where he was born and their present home now stands. This house was burned in March, 1890. The following summer they built their thoroughly modern residence. The groom of fifty years ago was born and has always lived on the farm bought by his grandfather, Noah Leonard, 92 years ago last February. His wife, Harriet S. Bean, was born July 3, 1842, a mile away from the village on the farm settled by her grandfather, Samuel Bean, in the year 1800, the farm now being and always having been kept in the Bean family. Their children were Hattie Eudella, who died in 1882, aged 16 years; Willard Chapin, for many years a successful pharmacist in New London, N. H., and Whitefield, N. H., and now in business in Boston, who married Kate Owen, second daughter of Judge Clarence P. and Anna Chase Owen. They have one daughter, Harriet, aged 17; they reside at 9 Upland Road, Cambridge, Mass. E. Almon Leonard, who graduated from Harvard Dental school, class of 1898, and practised his profession in Boston, Mass., and at Glover. He removed in 1909, for the benefit of his health, to Santa Fe, N. Mex., where he is now in practice. His wife, Bessie S., is daughter of James and Hannah Sims Squarebrigs of Jamaica Plain, Mass. A family reunion was held at the old home in August, all being present for nearly a week. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard are well known by the people of Glover and vicinity, he having been postmaster from 1877 to 1885 and is the present town clerk and treasurer, which office he has held since 1883. He represented the town in the state legislature in 1894-5, and was also interested in the mercantile business at Glover village for 18 years subsequent to 1870. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard have ever been awake to the welfare of the town and ardent supporters of any measure to promote its advancement. Mrs. Leonard's mother, Mrs. Phela E. Bear, has reached the age of 94 and enjoys the distinction of having seen three children celebrate a golden wedding anniversary, the other two being Mrs. J. E. Dwinell and Mrs. N. M. Scott of Glover and Barton respectively. They passed the day quietly at their home where they received the congratulations of callers and read the many letters received from old friends and schoolmates who were pleased to remember the day.

Fairbanks, Good Housekeeping Magazine, 351 Fourth avenue, New York city.

TWO YEGGMEN CAPTURED

Burglars Make Unsuccessful Break at East Burke Wednesday. Arrested near Coventry Friday Night by St. Johnsbury Officers.

Two yeggmen with long criminal pedigrees, who refuse to give their names, are in county jail at St. Johnsbury as the result of the well directed efforts of State's Attorney Simonds, Sheriff Worthen and his deputies. The capture was made at Coventry Friday evening and followed an unsuccessful attempt to burglarize several places in East Burke Wednesday night of last week. The men visited Orleans, where they were reported to the St. Johnsbury officers. From there they went to Coventry and then walked the track toward Newport. They were received by the officers about two miles south of Newport as they were track walking.

Prohibition Retained in Maine.

The latest revised returns from Maine indicate that the prohibition clause will be retained in the Maine constitution by a bare majority of 347 in a total vote of over 120,000. The victory was first claimed by about 1000 by the "wets" but later returns, though not entirely complete, indicate a reversal of the first announcement. This has been one of the hardest "wet" vs "dry" battles ever fought in this nation.

Barton Horses Winning Money.

The string of Barton horses trained at the Roaring Brook park stables by F. B. Lang and H. A. Harding are winning many races this fall. Johnny Medium, trained and driven by Mr. Lang, is perhaps doing the biggest stunts. He took first money in the $10,000 handicap race at Plattsburg, N. Y., Saturday, won first money at Middlebury the week before and also took first money at the fair here, and more is yet to be heard from Johnny Medium. Hal C., a horse trained and driven by Mr. Harding, took first money in the 2:17 pace at the Plattsburg races and Mr. Harding has been inside the money in a number of other events.

The mothers' meeting of the W. C. T. U. at Mrs. John McLellan's yesterday was well attended and a very interesting meeting was held. A number of mothers from Glover were present.

E. G. Freeman and C. M. Leonard are attending the various fairs in this state and others with their poultry exhibits and are getting many prizes. They are showing at St. Johnsbury this week.

The following letters remain uncalled for at the post-office. Please say advertised when calling for these letters. Eva Darnes, J. F. DeManche, Mrs. Nell Harr, Mrs. Julia Lithgon, Willie McAllister, Antoine Provost, Miss H. K. Wyman.

The lecture in the M. E. church last evening by Dr. Charles Stowe, son of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, was fairly well attended. Dr. Stowe told how and why his mother wrote the great book, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and spoke of the causes leading up to the war, and clearly pictured the results of the war on the black race in this nation.

The annual meeting of the Barton Congregational society, will be held at the church vestry, on Monday, Sept. 19, at 7:30 p. m. The annual allotment of pews will take place at the church, Wednesday, Sept. 21, at 3:00 p. m. All desiring pews or a change of their pews, are requested to be present, or previously notify the executive committee who are, F. W. Baldwin, A. P. Underwood, Hugh Campbell.

Saturday night we will again have Mr. Story's motion picture exhibition at Seaver's hall. The majority of the patrons will be pleased to note that the show will start hereafter at 8:15 and an extra reel is to be added to the program. Mr. Howland, the character impersonator, who has proven a favorite in this vicinity, has gained many friends in Barton and will be present a few more weeks. The social dance, which is a popular feature, will be resumed this week.

ALBANY.

Mr. Page and son Archie were in Sherbrooke the past week.

Harry Hyde and bride from Somerville, Mass., are guests at Will Burbank's.

The house owned by Geo. Shute was destroyed by fire last week. It was unoccupied.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Campbell of Morrisville recently visited Mrs. Helen Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Amasa Fairbrother of Hardwick visited her brother, Willard Eldridge recently.

Nathan Shute and Hanson Burlison of Craftsbury were in town Saturday on business.

Mrs. Ambrose Brown and little son of Boston, Mass., are guests of her mother, Mrs. Amanda Sanders.

There was no service in the M. E. church last Sabbath on account of the repairs that are being made.

There was a family reunion at M. V. B. Carter's, Thursday, Sept. 7. A large number of relatives from this and other towns were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gilbert of Craftsbury have been spending a few days with his brother Eli Gilbert.

Congregational Church Notes.

There will be a meeting of the social committee of the C. E. society at the church Friday evening.

The congregation listened to a very able sermon by Rev. W. B. Dukeshire Sunday morning, who preached in exchange with the pastor.

Methodist Episcopal Church Notes.

The prayer meeting on Thursday evening will meet as usual.

Rev. W. A. Warner preached a very excellent sermon Sunday morning in exchange with the pastor.

The second annual meeting and banquet of the Nehemiah Guild was held last Thursday night. One hundred and twenty-five were present. The men of the guild managed the banquet. The dues already paid in amount to $225. This will be considerably increased by the full payment of all the dues. A program of music and speaking followed the banquet. An organ solo by Mrs. Adams; a violin solo by C. S. Webster and vocal solos by Albert Scott and C. B. Webster. The music was interspersed with remarks by J. N. Webster, Charles Cutler, Dr. J. A. Pearson and the reading of letters from former pastors. A partial report of the recent repairs on the church by P. L. Webster showed $1200 has already been expended. Rev. R. F. Lowe, the new superintendent, was present and gave a very bright, interesting address. A rising vote of thanks was given the pastor, Rev. W. B. Dukeshire for his part in the success of the Guild. The best of feeling prevailed, and everybody pronounced the meeting a great success.

Play Tie at Barre Saturday.

The state championship tie game between the Barre Italian Athletic team and the Barton aggregation will be played off at Barre Saturday afternoon. The managers of the two teams could not make satisfactory arrangements for the game to be played off at St. Johnsbury as was anticipated and Barton finally consented to go to Barre and the game has been set for Saturday. A number of the sports of Barton, Orleans and other nearby places are planning to attend.

Mrs. Schuyler Chamberlain had the misfortune to stick a crochet hook into her hand which was removed by cutting it out.

Jerry Reynolds, who was called here by the death of his father, F. Reynolds, has returned to his home in Ayer, Mass.

H. C. Reynolds of Farmington, Ill., who was called here by the death of his grandfather, F. Reynolds, has returned home.

Mrs. Myra Glines and son Lloyd, who have spent several weeks with her mother, Mrs. Mary Cowles, have gone to Mansfield, Mass., enroute for Portland, Ore.

Sunday noon, Sept. 3, the community was greatly shocked to learn of the sudden death of one of our aged and honored citizens, Freeman Reynolds, who was taken ill Saturday. He has been feeble since he was ill in the early spring, but since his recovery nearly every day saw him at the post office, and many days he walked to the store. He was a man whom all respected and admired for his good principles and upright character—a modest man, not caring for public positions. He had passed his four score years, being born in Chatham, N. Y., Apr. 16, 1863, of Quaker parents, Titus and Hannah C. Reynolds, and is the last one of a family of ten. When a young man he went to Iowa, and there he met his helpmate, Lucy A. Chafey, she having gone there from this town. They were married in Jessop, Iowa, 1887, and soon returned to Albany, where they have since lived. Three children were born to them, Elmer, the late Rev. Elmer Reynolds, a Baptist minister residing in Ayer, Mass., who returned to see his father laid away, and Mattie, Mrs. Dana Hackett of this town, and twelve grandchildren survive him, one gone on before.

Mr. Reynolds was baptized by immersion, but never united with any church, feeling he preferred to belong to the Christian body as a whole. He was superintendent and teacher in the Sunday school for many years, and ready always to give his testimony. He believed in being neighborly, and will be missed among his friends where he called frequently. The funeral was held at his late home Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Geo. McDonald officiating. The flowers were abundant and very beautiful, showing the strong esteem in which he was held, and many of the old friends looked upon his face for the last time. The memory of him will bring only pleasant thoughts. He simply was waiting the Father's call, and was just as ready as if he had had a longer warning. It can well be said, he folded his hands and laid him down to sleep.

"Oh, blessed hope, that makes of death the portal

To life and light above!

Oh, blessed faith, that claims the garb immortal

And knows that God is love."

The burial was in the village cemetery. The family have the sympathy of all.

While Mr. and Mrs. Pete Stone and little son were driving down the steep hill from their home to Glover village one day last week, some part of the harness gave way and the horse ran, overturning the carriage. The child had a bad cut on the head, and Mr. Stone had a foot badly hurt, besides numerous other bruises.

There was a pleasant gathering recently of relatives and friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Skinner, to meet her sister, Mrs. Eliza M. Page from Colorado. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Clark, Mrs. E. L. Clark, Lillian Taylor from Canaan, N. H., Mrs. Carder and daughter Norma of Lyndonville, Geo. W. Clark and daughter, Adra Brunning, Mary Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Paige from Barton, and Oscar C. Skinner of Topeka, Kansas.

Our summer guests, like "birds of passage", have flown, or in the words of Artemus Ward, "they have got up and went;" but we trust they had a sufficiently enjoyable time to return another summer and bring their friends. On Friday evening, Sept. 1, Mr. White's Minstrels repeated by request their entertainment of last winter, to which Mr. Albee and the Misses Albee contributed a very pleasing number. The entertainment was followed by an informal dance which was much enjoyed by all present. Among our summer guests we note the following: Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Carter, daughters Marion and Helen, and sons George and Harold, who were cosily domiciled in the furnished home of the Misses Blodgett. This is the Carters' fourth season here and we shall look forward with pleasure to their return another summer. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Albee, daughters Ethel and Rachel, and Ralph Higgins of Springfield, Mass., Fortus E. Clark of Chelsea, Mass., and Miss Addie Clark of Washington, D. C. Mrs. Nina Parrish Spier of Randolph, Ill. as E. G. Ford's. Mrs. Myrtle M. Clarke, Bradford, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Steele and son of New Haven, Conn., at E. H. Nye's. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Leonard and daughter Harriet of Cambridge, Mass., Dr. and Mrs. E. Almoa Leonard of Santa Fe, N. Mex., at Chapin Leonard's. Carl M. Abbott, Atchboro, Mass., at M. Abbott's. E. L. French, Elmer French, Mr. and Mrs. Martin French, from Massachusetts at J. F. Taylor's. Mrs. G. R. Chandler, Lowell, Mass., at the Misses Blodgett's. The winter craves pardon if any names have been omitted.
